Free Museum Day Huntingdon, Juniata & Mifflin Counties PA Saturday September 18, 2021

Looking to go back in time? Wanting to go on an adventure not too far from home? Then we have just the event for you, Free Museum Day!

Free Museum Day will take place on Saturday September 18, 2021 in Huntingdon, Juniata and Mifflin Counties Pennsylvania. Enjoy the day exploring and learning about what great history and heritage Central PA has right in your backyard!

It will be a great day to learn and maybe even experience how things were done many years ago. From vintage tools and farming equipment to riding a trolley, visiting a one-room school house or a blacksmith shop, going from a model railroad to an actual train station. There's so much to see and do! You don't want to miss it!

Participating locations by county are:

Huntingdon County:

Isett Heritage Museum, Swigart Museum, Friends of the East Broad Top Museum, Greenwood Furnace State Park – Blacksmith Shop, Hartslog Heritage Museum, Mount Union Area Historical Society, Bricktown Museum, Mapleton Union Area Historical Society, Huntingdon County Fair Farm Museum , Broad Top Coal Miners Museum, Rockhill Trolley Museum & East Broad Top Railroad.

For Huntingdon County Museums, it is encouraged to register but not required www.huntingdoncountyhistory.com

Mifflin County:

McCoy House, Mifflin County Historical Society Library, Amish & Mennonite Heritage Center, Kishacoquillas Valley Historical Society, McVeytown Museum, Burnham Dog House, Mifflin County Model Railroad Club, Hoopes School & Lewistown Train Station.

Juniata County:

Tuscarora Academy, Juniata County Historical Society, Juniata Mennonite Historical Center, Fort Pomfret, The American House & Smith School
